

The Suffolk IVC Newsletter and Bulletin – November 2018

Hi everybody,

We had the Suffolk IVC AGM in October, which flowed easily and resulted in re-election of all of the present incumbents to carry on what they were doing before. The minutes will follow the November bulletin; if you would like to join us on the committee do please let me know.

We had an idyllic morning's rowing from Dedham to Flatford with not another boat to be seen on the river; a glorious sunny day with tea and cake at Flatford. Unfortunately the last of the year and the next is probably not until spring sometime.

Hope to see some of you at The Lion in Earls Colne again for the Essex/Suffolk IVC Club Night; first Monday is November 5th and we look forward to your company if you would like to join us. I will be showing off my prowess on my crutches after my hip replacement on the 1st. Unfortunately, Gill can't do her club night in East Bergholt this month and I'm unable to take over.

If you have any ideas for events do bring them along to the pub nights, e-mail me or give me a call if you need help. If you want to do something and decide to go, put it on as a club activity and you may have friends join you. Walks are great events for socialising and it's certainly the time of year for them.

Don't forget that Cambridge has a website that you can access; we will endeavour to add details of their events that may be of interest but you can of course contact them direct.

PLEASE KEEP SENDING EVENTS

It's what we are all here for !!

Just tell us what you are going to and we'll put it in the bulletin and you might find that it's of interest to someone besides yourself. It's as simple as that.

Ballet, The Theatre Royal, Bury St Edmunds -- 7pm

Beauty and the Beast with Ballet Theatre UK; an enchanting love story. Inspired by the original tale, this production tells the story of Belle, a beautiful and intelligent young woman who feels out of place in her provincial French village. When her father is imprisoned in a mysterious castle, Belle's attempt to rescue him leads to her capture by the Beast, a fearsome monster cursed by a magical Enchantress. The only way the Beast may become human again is if he learns to love and be loved in return. The curse set by the Enchantress is bound by a magical rose. If the final petal falls, all hope will be lost and he will remain a Beast forever. Their feelings grow ever deeper as the clock ticks and petals continue to fall – will they confess their love for one another before it is too late ? Set to a stunning classical score this production showcases new choreography by Artistic Director Christopher Moore. Book your own tickets and let me know that you will be joining us.

Directions : The theatre is in Westgate Street (post code IP33 1QR) but parking is best in The Greene King car park in Cullum Road, a very short walk through to the back of the theatre.

Notes for Your Diary

December

Monday 3rd

📖 The Nutcracker, The Quay Theatre, Sudbury -- 6.45pm

A live broadcast from The Royal Opera House by The Royal Ballet Company. I've booked tickets in H9/10, so if you would like to join us please book your own tickets and let me know to look out for you. Ticket price is £16 and are available from the Quay on the following website where you will also find more information; www.quaysudbury.com. Start time is 7:15 but we plan to meet in the bar upstairs for a chat beforehand.

The Nutcracker has long been one of the most delightful ways to discover the enchantment of ballet – and makes for a delicious seasonal treat for all the family. Tchaikovsky's much-loved music is matched to a magical adventure on Christmas Eve for Clara and her Nutcracker doll. Their journey to the Land of Sweets brings with it some of the most familiar of all ballet moments, such as the Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy and the Waltz of the Flowers. Peter Wright's production for The Royal Ballet keeps true to the spirit of this Russian ballet classic, with period details and dancing snowflakes. The many solo roles and ensembles put the world-class skills of the Company to the fore in this Christmas classic.

Directions : The theatre is in Quay Lane Sudbury with parking close by also down Quay Lane, just near the theatre.

Host Name(s)

Contact Details (any that you wish to provide but there must be something)

Other things to consider

Is it bookable, and who with + contact details.

The Suffolk IVC Committee 2017-2018

Details are now on the website.

As you can see two people have two positions and we have already mentioned the need for a bulletin editor. None of the roles are onerous but it makes life easier the more people we have to help. Generally speaking being on the committee means that you are a bit more involved and have more of a say in running the club; and it really does make things more interesting and more fun. So if you think you can help call or e-mail Brad for more information.
